- (b) a references to a “person” shall be construed so as to include any individual, firm, company, corporation, body corporate, government, state, or agency of a state, local or municipal authority or government body or any joint venture, association, federation, confederation or partnership (whether or not having separate legal personality);
- (c) a reference to any of the regulations, or to any provision or provisions in a regulation, shall be construed, unless the context otherwise requires, as including a reference to any amendment or replacement made to the same from time to time.

1.2 All headings and titles in this Constitution have been inserted for ease of reference only and may not be considered as an aid to its interpretation.

2. LEGAL STATUS AND HEAD OFFICE

2.1 The International Boxing Association (AIBA) is a non-governmental not-for-profit association incorporated in Switzerland in accordance with art. 60 ff. of the Swiss Civil Code, and subject to the laws of Switzerland.

2.2 The Head Office of AIBA is located in Lausanne, Switzerland or in such other location as may be determined by the Congress.

3. MISSION

3.1 The mission of AIBA is to promote, support and govern the sport of boxing worldwide in accordance with the requirements and spirit of the Olympic Charter.

3.2 AIBA shall fulfil its mission notably by achieving the following objectives:

- (A) to promote the sport and the spirit of boxing in all its forms, in the light of its educational, cultural and sports values and to encourage the development of boxing throughout the world;

- (B) to promote boxing globally as a healthy, educational and fitness boxing activity for men and women, and to foster the safety of Boxers and their welfare at all levels, particularly by promoting and controlling good sporting practices, and through youth and development programs;
- (C) to promote the highest standards with respect to organization, judging, refereeing, coaching, training, education and medical and anti-doping controls in the sport of boxing;
- (D) to organise and conduct AIBA Competitions;
- (E) to regulate the sport of boxing worldwide through the Regulations;
- (F) to encourage and support the development, organization and delivery of boxing worldwide through its Confederations and National Federations, and to ensure that the rules and regulations of the Confederations and of National Federations comply with the provisions of this Constitution and with the Regulations applicable to them;
- (G) to promote understanding and cooperation between Confederations and National Federations, to give them support, to strengthen their authority and prestige and to ensure unity among AIBA, the Confederations and the National Federations;
- (H) to promote and further the ideals of the Olympic movement as expressed in the Olympic Charter;
- (I) to preserve the right of every individual to participate in boxing as a sport without unlawful discrimination of any kind undertaken in the spirit of friendship, solidarity and fair play;
- (J) to promote the involvement of women in the sport of boxing and enhance women's boxing programs;
- (K) to combat doping and integrity issues that might damage the sport and reputation of boxing; and
- (L) to cooperate with other sports organizations and authorities to promote the interests of sports generally, and boxing in particular, throughout the world.

4. NON-DISCRIMINATION

- 4.1 Discrimination of any kind against a country, private person or group of people on account of race; skin colour; ethnic, national or social origin; gender; disability; language; religion; political opinion or any other opinion; wealth; birth or any other status; sexual orientation or any other reason is strictly prohibited.

5. POWERS

- 5.1 Confederations, National Federations, Officials, Competition Officials, Boxers, coaches and all other persons and organizations subject to this Constitution must comply with its provisions and with all Regulations applicable to them.
- 5.2 The constitutions or statutes of all Confederations, of all National Federations and of all associations which are members of, or affiliated with, any National Federation must expressly recognize the obligations mandated by article 5.1.
- 5.3 Each Confederation shall take all steps reasonably open to it to ensure that all of the National Federations which are members of it comply with the obligations on them mandated by articles 5.1 and 5.2.
- 5.4 Each National Federation shall take all steps reasonably open to it to ensure that:
- (a) all associations which are members of, or affiliated with, that National Federation;
 - (b) all persons elected to office in that National Federation;
 - (c) all persons appointed to any position in that National Federation;
 - (d) all persons employed by that National Federation;
 - (e) all persons occupying a position in that National Federation similar to that of any Competition Official; and
 - (f) all Boxers and coaches registered by that National Federation and by all associations which are members of, or affiliated with, that National Federation;
- comply with the obligations applicable to them which are mandated by articles 5.1 and 5.2.
- 5.5 A National Federation may not become a member of, or in any way affiliated with, any other international or national boxing organization save as provided for in this Constitution or otherwise with the express written permission of the Board.

6. OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

- 6.1 Arabic, English, French, Russian and Spanish are the official languages of the Congress.
- 6.2 Save as provided in article 6.1, or as the Board may otherwise resolve, English is the official working language at all meetings of all bodies created by, or in accordance with, this Constitution; and for all Regulations, and all of AIBA's minutes, correspondence, announcements, and decisions. National Federations are responsible for translations from English into the languages of their countries.
- 6.3 For the avoidance of doubt, any dispute with respect to the interpretation of this Constitution or of the Regulations must be determined by reference to the English language version of such document.

7. MEMBERSHIP

- 7.1 A boxing association, which is, or is capable of becoming, responsible for governing the sport of boxing within its country may apply to become a National Federation.
- 7.2 There may only be one National Federation from any one country.

8. ADMISSION AS A MEMBER

- 8.1 Subject to satisfying the requirements of articles 7.1 and 7.2, a boxing association may apply to AIBA to be admitted as a National Federation.
- 8.2 An application by a boxing association to be admitted as a National Federation must be sent by post or email to the AIBA Head Office, and must include or be accompanied by such documents and particulars as the Board may from time to time determine.

9. PROVISIONAL MEMBERSHIP

- 9.1 Following receipt by AIBA of an application by a boxing association to be admitted as a National Federation, the Board may admit that entity as a Provisional Member of AIBA, provided that it satisfies the requirements contained in articles 7.1, 7.2 and 8.2.

9.2 Provisional Members of AIBA shall have the right to:

- (a) attend meetings of the Congress but not to vote during such meetings; and
- (b) participate in AIBA Competitions and in other boxing competitions with National Federations subject to the provisions of this Constitution and to any applicable regulations which may be made from time to time by the Board; and
- (c) shall have such other rights as may be determined from time to time by the Board.

9.3 Following the decision of the Board to admit a boxing association as a Provisional Member of AIBA, the Provisional Member's application to be admitted as a National Federation shall be referred for determination to the meeting of the Congress next following the Board's decision.

9.4 Upon considering such application, the Congress may:

- (a) admit the Provisional Member as a National Federation;
- (b) defer consideration of the application to a subsequent meeting of the Congress upon such terms, if any, as the Congress may deem appropriate;
- (c) specify a condition or conditions the satisfaction of which will result in the Provisional Member thereupon becoming a National Federation without further recourse to the Congress; and delegate to the Board the power to determine whether or not the specified condition or conditions has or have been satisfied; or
- (d) reject the application.

10. RIGHTS OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

10.1 Eligible National Federations shall have the right to:

- (a) participate in debates and to vote during meetings of the Congress;
- (b) submit proposals for inclusion in Congress Agendas;
- (c) nominate eligible candidates for election at meetings of the Congress;

- (d) participate and enter Boxers in AIBA Competitions and in other boxing competitions with other National Federations subject to the provisions of this Constitution and to any applicable Regulations;
- (e) be regularly informed of AIBA activities, notably by receiving reports, circulars, official information, as necessary to exercise their right as National Federations or as further specified in this Constitution and the Regulations; and
- (f) such other rights as set out in this Constitution and the Regulations and as may be determined from time to time by the Board.

11. OBLIGATIONS OF NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

11.1 Each National Federation is obliged to:

- (a) comply with the requirements of this Constitution and of the Regulations applicable to it;
- (b) comply with decisions to be issued by AIBA, including the Disciplinary Committee and the Ethics Committee at any time, as well as the awards of CAS, and shall ensure that said decisions and awards are legally binding and enforced;
- (c) abstain from any conduct which is, or may reasonably be seen to be, detrimental to AIBA or to the interests of AIBA;
- (d) submit to the Board a copy of its constitution (together with an English translation of the same if such constitution is written in a language other than English) whenever that constitution is amended or replaced;
- (e) democratically elect or appoint its officers and executive body in accordance with its constitution and generally recognized democratic and good governance principles;
- (f) supply information as may be specified in the Regulations or as otherwise requested in writing;
- (g) manage its affairs independently and ensure that its own affairs are not unduly influenced by any third party or third parties;
- (h) pay to AIBA all monies owing to AIBA; and

- (i) pay to the Confederation of which it is a member all monies owing to that Confederation.

12. CESSATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 12.1 A National Federation will cease to be a member of AIBA if:
 - (a) it resigns its membership of AIBA;
 - (b) its membership of AIBA is terminated by a resolution of the Congress in accordance with this Constitution; or
 - (c) it is wound up or dissolved as a boxing association in accordance with its national laws.
- 12.2 A National Federation may resign its membership of AIBA by forwarding by post or email a letter of resignation, signed by an authorised officer of the National Federation, to the AIBA Head Office.
- 12.3 A National Federation's resignation from its membership of AIBA:
 - (a) will take effect immediately upon receipt by the AIBA Head Office of the National Federation's letter of resignation; but
 - (b) will not operate to extinguish or in any way bar any legal obligation the National Federation may have to pay any monies payable to AIBA or to the Confederation of which it is a member.

13. SUSPENSION FROM MEMBERSHIP

- 13.1 The Board may suspend any National Federation from membership of AIBA if the National Federation concerned:
 - (a) no longer satisfies the requirements for membership of AIBA contained in article 7.1; or
 - (b) is in serious breach of a provision or provisions in this Constitution or in the Regulations, provided it is granted the right to be heard pursuant to the Regulations.
- 13.2 Before issuing any decision of suspension, the Board shall provide notice to the National Federation of the opening of a proceeding against it, grant the National Federation concerned the right to be acquainted with the charges against it and to exercise its right to be heard, as well as any further rights which may be provided for in the Regulations.

- 13.3 Following the suspension of a National Federation consistent with article 13.1, such suspension shall be referred to the meeting of the Congress next following that suspension for consideration of the Congress at that meeting.
- 13.4 The rights accorded to a National Federation by article 10.1 shall lapse during any period in which the National Federation stands suspended by a decision of the Board unless the Board determines otherwise. Notwithstanding the above, the Board shall undertake any measures it may deem fit in order to ensure that Boxers affiliated to any suspended National Federation are not deprived of their right to take part in Competitions, under conditions to be fixed by the Board.
- 13.5 At any time prior to the consideration of the Congress of the Board's decision to suspend a National Federation, the Board may revoke that suspension on such terms, if any, as the Board may deem appropriate.
- 13.6 In its consideration of the suspension of a National Federation, the Congress may:
- (a) revoke the suspension;
 - (b) extend the suspension:
 - (i) for such period and/or upon such terms as the Congress may deem appropriate; or
 - (ii) for further consideration by the next meeting of the Congress; or
 - (c) terminate the National Federation's membership of AIBA upon the vote of the Voting Delegates from not less than two thirds of the National Federations in attendance at the meeting of the Congress; provided in any event that the National Federation is granted the right to be heard by the Congress.

14. CONTINENTAL CONFEDERATIONS

- 14.1 The following Confederations are recognized by AIBA:
- (a) the AFBC;

- (b) the AMBC;
- (c) the ASBC;
- (d) the EUBC; and
- (e) the OCBC.

14.2 Each Confederation shall have the following functions, rights and duties:

- (a) to promote the sport of boxing throughout the Confederation;
- (b) to organise Confederation Championships, other boxing competitions and training courses for coaches, referees and judges, technical officials, ring doctors, administrators, managers and promoters with AIBA programs;
- (c) such other functions, rights and duties as the Board may determine from time to time; and
- (d) to receive financial support from AIBA.

14.3 Each Confederation is obliged to:

- (a) comply with the requirements of this Constitution and of the Regulations applicable to it;
- (b) comply with decisions made by AIBA, including those of the Disciplinary Committee and of the Ethics Committee, as well as the awards of CAS;
- (c) abstain from any conduct which is, or may reasonably be seen to be, detrimental to AIBA or to the interests of AIBA;
- (d) democratically elect or appoint its officers and executive body in accordance with its constitution;
- (e) manage its affairs independently and ensure that its own affairs are not unduly influenced by any third parties; and
- (f) pay to AIBA all monies owing to AIBA.

14.4 Each Confederation is further obliged to submit to the Board:

- (a) a copy of its constitution (together with an English translation of the same if such constitution is written in a language other than English) whenever that constitution is amended or replaced; and

- (b) its annual financial statements, activity reports, budgets and business plans;
- (c) any further information as may be specified in the Regulations or as otherwise requested in writing.

15. GOVERNANCE OF AIBA

15.1 The organs of governance of AIBA are:

- (a) the Congress;
- (b) the Board; and
- (c) the Council.

16. CONGRESS — ORGANIZATION

16.1 The Congress is an assembly of all Eligible National Federations.

16.2 A National Federation shall be deemed to be an Eligible National Federation if the National Federation:

- (a) does not stand suspended in accordance with either article 13.1 or article 13.4 on the date of the Congress;
- (b) has paid its Annual Affiliation Fee at least one month before the Congress;
- (c) does not owe any other monies to AIBA on the date of the Congress;
- (d) has not been declared ineligible by the Disciplinary Committee in accordance with article 16.3; and
- (e) has had a Boxer or Boxers compete during the previous four years in not less than one AIBA World Championships, or Confederation Championships, or such other boxing competition as the Board may have determined by Regulations.

16.3 Each Confederation may inform AIBA that a National Federation owes monies to that Confederation and is in breach of article 11.1(i). Upon receipt of such notice, the AIBA Secretary General shall immediately refer the matter to the Disciplinary Committee to decide whether the concerned National Federation shall be declared as not being an Eligible National Federation for a failure to pay monies due to its Confederation.

- 16.4 Each delegate to the Congress must have been validly appointed by that delegate's National Federation in accordance with the constitution, bylaws or regulations of that National Federation.
- 16.5 A delegate cannot represent more than one National Federation at a meeting of the Congress.
- 16.6 AIBA shall make provision where necessary for economy class air travel, accommodation and meals for a Voting Delegate attending an Ordinary Congress meeting and shall, where possible, meet the costs of the same.

17. CONGRESS — POWERS

- 17.1 The Congress has the power and, when required by this Constitution, the duty to:
- (a) determine whether or not a Provisional Member of AIBA shall be admitted as a National Federation;
 - (b) determine whether or not to revoke or extend the suspension of a suspended National Federation, or to terminate that National Federation's membership of AIBA;
 - (c) elect the President and Directors of the Board and to conduct such elections as it is required to conduct in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution;
 - (d) on a motion of no confidence adopted by the Voting Delegates from not less than two thirds of all National Federations in attendance at a meeting of the Congress, remove the President or any other elected Director from office as a member of the Board;
 - (e) determine whether or not to approve the persons proposed by the Board for appointment as members of the Ethics Committee and the Disciplinary Committee; also if required, the power to dismiss members of the Ethics Committee and Disciplinary Committee;
 - (f) determine whether or not to approve the minutes of the previous meeting of the Congress;
 - (g) determine whether or not to approve AIBA's audited financial report;

- (h) determine whether or not the Board has discharged its financial obligations;
- (i) determine the amount of the Annual Affiliation Fee to be paid by National Federations;
- (j) approve or not approve other reports submitted to it by the Board;
- (k) determine whether or not to move the location of the AIBA Head Office;
- (l) confer Distinguished Service Awards;
- (m) define the geographic area over which a Confederation shall extend for the purpose of the membership of that Confederation;
- (n) amend or replace this Constitution; and
- (o) dissolve AIBA.

17.2 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Board shall make regulations governing the manner in which meetings of the Congress are conducted; including (but not necessarily limited to) making regulations regarding:

- (a) the date and place of such meetings;
- (b) the validation of entitlements of Voting Delegates to vote at such meetings;
- (c) the procedures for voting by Voting Delegates at such meetings;
- (d) the circumstances in which delegates and others may speak at such meetings; and
- (e) the minutes of such meetings.

18. ORDINARY CONGRESS

18.1 A meeting of the Congress may be either an Ordinary Congress meeting or an Extraordinary Congress meeting.

18.2 An Ordinary Congress meeting shall be convened by the Board every two years. Every second Ordinary Congress meeting shall be an Election Congress Meeting.

18.3 The Board shall give not less than four months written notice of each Ordinary Congress meeting to all National Federations. Such notice shall specify:

- (a) the date and venue of such meeting;

- (b) the date by which a National Federation intending to be represented at such meeting must notify the AIBA Head Office of the names of its intended Voting Delegate and of any non-voting delegate or delegates;
- (c) if such meeting is an Election Congress Meeting:
 - (i) those offices which are to be filled by election at the meeting; and
 - (ii) the date by which each nomination of a candidate to fill any such office must be notified to the AIBA Head Office; and
- (d) the date by which any proposed motion or other proposed item of business must be notified to the AIBA Head Office.

18.4 In circumstances unforeseen by the Board at the time it originally convened either an Ordinary or an Extraordinary Congress meeting, the Board may change the date and/or the place of such meeting.

18.5 If the date and/or the place of a Congress meeting is changed in accordance with article 18.4, then the Board shall immediately notify all National Federations in writing of the change or changes.

19. EXTRAORDINARY CONGRESS

19.1 An Extraordinary Congress meeting:

- (a) may be convened by the Board of its own motion at any time if the Board considers that such an Extraordinary Congress meeting is necessary or desirable; and
- (b) must be convened by the Board within a period of three months after not less than one third of all National Federations then owing no monies to AIBA request such an Extraordinary Congress meeting.

19.2 A request for an Extraordinary Congress meeting made by National Federations in accordance with article 19.1(b) must:

- (a) specify the purpose of the proposed Extraordinary Congress meeting, and further specify any motion or motions proposed to be moved at such meeting;
- (b) be forwarded by post or email to the AIBA Head Office.

- 19.3 The Board shall give not less than two months written notice of each Extraordinary Congress meeting to all National Federations. Such notice shall specify:
- (a) the date and venue of such meeting;
 - (b) the date by which a National Federation intending to be represented at such meeting must notify the AIBA Head Office of the names of its intended Voting Delegate and of any non-voting delegate or delegates.

20. AGENDA FOR CONGRESS

- 20.1 Not less than two months prior to the date fixed for an Ordinary Congress meeting, each Eligible National Federation may forward to the AIBA Head Office, by post or email, notice of an item or items of business including any motion or motions to be included in such Agenda for that Congress meeting. Each such notice of an item of business must be accompanied by a explanation of the item and the reason or reasons why the National Federation concerned has sought to have it included in such Agenda.
- 20.2 Each notice forwarded by a National Federation to the AIBA Head Office in accordance with article 20.1 shall be included in the Agenda for the Congress meeting.
- 20.3 Subject to the requirements of articles 20.1 and 20.2, the Agenda for an Ordinary Congress meeting shall be determined by the Board.
- 20.4 The Agenda for an Extraordinary Congress meeting convened by the Board of its own motion shall be determined by the Board.
- 20.5 The Agenda for an Extraordinary Congress meeting convened in accordance with articles 19.1(a) or 19.1(b) shall include the item or items of business resulting in the convening of the Extraordinary Congress meeting.
- 20.6 Subject to the requirements of article 20.5, the Board may include such other item or items of business as it may consider appropriate on the Agenda for an Extraordinary Congress meeting convened in accordance with article 19.1(b).
- 20.7 Not less than one month prior to the date fixed for the commencement of a Congress meeting, the AIBA Head Office shall forward to all Eligible National Federations by post or email:

- (a) the Agenda for that Congress meeting; and
- (b) all documents reasonably necessary for the proper consideration by the delegates at such Congress meeting of the matters on the Agenda for such meeting.

20.8 An item or items of business not included on the Agenda for a Congress meeting may be considered and dealt with at such meeting if the Voting Delegates from not less than two thirds of the National Federations in attendance at the meeting vote in favour of the inclusion of such item in the Agenda for such meeting.

20.9 No motion to amend this Constitution, hold elections or dissolve AIBA shall be considered at a meeting of the Congress unless it appears on the Agenda for that meeting.

21. CONGRESS PROCEEDINGS

21.1 Save as provided by articles 21.2 and 21.3:

- (a) the President shall preside over meetings of the Congress.
- (b) In the event that the President is unable or unwilling to preside over a meeting of the Congress, then the Vice President shall preside over such meeting.
- (c) In the event that neither the President nor the Vice President is able or willing to preside over a meeting of the Congress, then the Chairperson of the Ethics Committee shall preside over such meeting.
- (d) In the event that neither the President, the Vice President nor the Chairperson of the Ethics Committee is able or willing to preside over a meeting of the Congress, then those other Directors attending the meeting shall elect one of their number to preside over such meeting.

21.2 During each Election Congress Meeting, the Chairperson of the Ethics Committee shall preside over the conduct of all elections for positions on the Board held at such Election Congress Meeting.

21.3 In the event that the Chairperson of the Ethics Committee is unavailable to preside over the conduct of any election referred to in article 21.2, then such other member of the Ethics Committee, who shall be chosen by the remaining members of the Ethics Committee for the purpose, shall preside over such election.

22. VOTING

- 22.1 Each National Federation represented at a Congress by a Voting Delegate has one vote, which must only be cast by that National Federation's Voting Delegate.

23. QUORUM

- 23.1 A quorum for meetings of the Congress shall be constituted by the attendance at such meetings of the Voting Delegates from not less than half plus one of all Eligible National Federations.
- 23.2 If the quorum referred to in article 23.1 is not attained at a meeting of the Congress, then the Board may convene a further meeting of the Congress with the same Agenda within three months at such location as the Board may determine. Such a meeting of the Congress shall be deemed to have been validly convened notwithstanding that the quorum referred to in article 23.1 has not been attained.

24. VOTING ON DECISIONS

- 24.1 Save as provided in article 24.2, a matter put to a vote at a meeting of the Congress shall be deemed to have been carried or adopted if the Voting Delegates from not less than half plus one of the National Federations in attendance at the meeting vote in favour of it.
- 24.2 A vote to amend or replace this Constitution shall only be deemed to have been carried at a meeting of the Congress if the Voting Delegates from not less than two thirds of the National Federations in attendance at the meeting vote in favour of the amendment or replacement.
- 24.3 A decision adopted at a meeting of the Congress shall take effect from the time of its adoption unless such meeting:
- (a) fixes another time or date at which it is to take effect; or
 - (b) instructs the Board to fix, in the exercise of the Board's discretion, another time or date at which it is to take effect, and the Board so fixes that other time or date.

25. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

25.1 The Board of Directors of AIBA shall consist of the following 22 Directors:

- (a) the President, who shall be elected at each Election Congress Meeting by the Voting Delegates from all of the Eligible National Federations in attendance at the meeting;
- (b) the Presidents of the AFBC, the AMBC, the ASBC, the EUBC and the OCBC, each elected from time to time in accordance with the constitution of his or her Confederation;
- (c) one person from each of the AFBC, the AMBC, the ASBC and the EUBC, who shall be elected at each Election Congress Meeting by the Voting Delegates from all of the National Federations in attendance at such meeting;
- (d) two persons (one being a man and the other a woman) from each of the AFBC, the AMBC, the ASBC, the EUBC and the OCBC, who shall be elected at each Election Congress Meeting by the Voting Delegates from all of the Eligible National Federations within the Confederation concerned in attendance at the meeting; and
- (e) the Chair of the Athletes' Committee and one (1) other member of the Athletes' Committee elected by the members of the Athletes' Committee, who shall be of each gender.

25.2 Each Director serving on the Board shall be from a different National Federation, except for the Directors who are members of the Athletes' Committee.

26. ELIGIBILITY

26.1 Each candidate for election to an office on the Board must be nominated for election to such office by the National Federation of the country of which he or she is a citizen.

26.2 To be eligible to stand for election to an office on the Board, a candidate must:

- (a) never have been convicted of a serious criminal offence punishable by a term of imprisonment;

- (b) not be the subject of a current or pending prosecution for the commission of a serious criminal offence punishable by a term of imprisonment;
- (c) never have been sanctioned for a breach of:
 - (i) this Constitution;
 - (ii) the Regulations;
 - (iii) the IOC's Code of Ethics;
 - (iv) anti-doping regulations adopted pursuant to the World Anti-Doping Code or any of its national derivatives;
- (d) not be the subject of a current or pending proceeding for a breach of:
 - (i) this Constitution;
 - (ii) the Regulations;
 - (iii) the IOC's Code of Ethics;
 - (iv) anti-doping regulations adopted pursuant to the World Anti-Doping Code or any of its national derivatives;
- (e) not be a bankrupt or otherwise insolvent under the law of the candidate's place of domicile;
- (f) not be the subject of any current order made under the law of the candidate's place of domicile declaring him or her to be insane or of unsound mind; and
- (g) save without the express approval of the Board, a candidate cannot hold any position in any international boxing organization other than AIBA or a Confederation.

26.3 The Ethics Committee shall determine whether or not each candidate for election to office on the Board satisfies the eligibility criteria contained in articles 26.1 and 26.2 and shall provide its determination to the AIBA Head Office.

26.4 All candidates for election to an office on the Board must be present for that election at the Congress during which the election occurs.

26.5 All nominations for offices on the Board must be forwarded by post, email or hand delivery to the AIBA Head Office and received not less than 40 days prior to the date fixed for the commencement of an Election Congress Meeting during which elections for such offices are to be conducted.

- 26.6 Not less than 20 days prior to the date fixed for the commencement of an Election Congress Meeting during which elections are to be held for offices on the Board, the AIBA Head Office shall forward by post or email to all Eligible National Federations and publish on the AIBA website a list of all of those candidates whom the Ethics Committee has determined are eligible to stand in the elections.

27. VOTING IN ELECTIONS

- 27.1 The President shall be elected by a system of exhaustive balloting pursuant to which a series of ballots may be conducted, with the candidate receiving the least number of votes in each successive ballot being eliminated from the next ballot, until the successful candidate receives the votes of Voting Delegates from not less than half plus one of all of the National Federations in attendance at the Congress meeting. However, in any such ballot, if two or more candidates jointly receive fewer votes than the candidate receiving the next lowest number of votes, then those two or more candidates shall be eliminated from the next ballot. In the event that after the elimination of all other candidates in accordance with this article, two or more candidates are tied with an equal number of votes, then a further ballot shall be conducted, with only such tied candidates remaining as candidates in that further ballot. In the event that after that further ballot, two or more of the candidates remain tied with an equal number of votes, then the Chairperson of the Ethics Committee shall draw the name of the successful candidate by lot from among those so tied.
- 27.2 Separate ballots shall be held at each Election Congress Meeting to elect each of the four Directors referred to in article 25.1(c). In the ballot for each such Director, the successful candidate shall be the candidate who receives the highest number of votes of Voting Delegates from the Eligible National Federations in attendance at such meeting. In the event that after such a ballot, two or more candidates are tied with an equal highest number of votes, then a second ballot must be conducted, with only the tied candidates remaining as candidates in that second ballot. In the event that after that second ballot, two or more candidates remain tied with the highest number of votes, then the Chairperson of the Ethics Committee shall draw the name of the successful candidate by lot from among those so tied.

- 27.3 Separate ballots shall be held at each Election Congress Meeting to elect each of the 10 Directors referred to in article 25.1(d). In the ballot for each such Director, the successful candidate shall be the candidate who receives the highest number of votes of Voting Delegates from all of the Eligible National Federations within the Confederation concerned in attendance at such meeting. In the event that after such a ballot, two or more candidates are tied with an equal highest number of votes, then a second ballot must be conducted, with only the tied candidates remaining as candidates in that second ballot. In the event that after that second ballot, two or more candidates remain tied with the highest number of votes, then the Chairperson of the Ethics Committee shall draw the name of the successful candidate by lot from among those so tied.
- 27.4 Where there is only one candidate for a position on the Board, then that candidate shall be deemed to be unanimously elected by acclamation at the Congress meeting concerned.
- 27.5 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Board shall make such regulations for the conduct of elections to offices on the Board it may consider appropriate.

28. MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

- 28.1 The Board shall meet whenever necessary but, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, must meet at least three times per year.
- 28.2 Board meetings may be conducted:
- (a) in person, or
 - (b) by means of telecommunications. A telecommunications meeting may be held by telephone or by audio-visual link.
- 28.3 Save as provided by articles 28.4 and 28.5, the President shall preside over meetings of the Board. In the event that the President is unavailable or unwilling to chair a meeting, then the Vice President shall preside over it. In the event that neither the President nor the Vice President is available or willing, then those other Directors attending the meeting shall elect one of their number to preside over the meeting.

- 28.4 In the event that a motion put to a Board meeting in any way affects the position of the President and/or the Vice President, then neither shall preside over the debate and the vote on the motion. In such circumstances, those other Directors attending the meeting shall elect one of their number to preside over the meeting.
- 28.5 A quorum for a meeting of the Board shall be constituted by the attendance at such meeting of not less than half plus one of the Directors.
- 28.6 A meeting of the Board:
- (a) may be convened by the President of his or her own motion if he or she considers that such a meeting is necessary or desirable; and
 - (b) must be convened by the President within a period of four weeks after not less than one third plus one of the remaining Directors request such a meeting.
- 28.7 All Directors shall be entitled to vote on all matters put to a vote at meetings of the Board; save only that any Director with a conflict of interest regarding such matter shall not be entitled to vote on the same.
- 28.8 Save as provided by article 28.9, the deliberations of Directors at Board meetings shall be and remain confidential.
- 28.9 Directors may, by a majority vote of those present at any Board meeting, direct that:
- (a) the minutes of the meeting, or a part or parts thereof;
 - (b) a report of the deliberations of the Board at such meeting; and/or
 - (c) a note of any decision or decisions taken by the Board at such meeting;
- be circulated to National Federations or otherwise made public.
- 28.10 At the discretion of the President, the Board may be invited to reach a decision on any matter by an email vote.
- 28.11 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Board may make such regulations as it deems necessary or appropriate governing when, where and the manner in which meetings of the Board are to be conducted.

29. POWERS OF THE BOARD

29.1 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the executive power to govern AIBA is vested in the Board. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Board has both the power and, where so required by this Constitution, the duty to:

- (a) convene meetings of the Congress in accordance with the requirements of this Constitution;
- (b) save as required by article 19.2(a), determine the Agendas of Congress meetings;
- (c) implement the decisions adopted by the Congress;
- (d) appoint, and where appropriate, remove the Vice President;
- (e) make and amend such regulations as may be required by this Constitution;
- (f) make, amend and repeal such other regulations which, in the opinion of the Board, may from time to time be, or have been, necessary or desirable for the management and administration of AIBA and the sport of boxing worldwide;
- (g) admit boxing associations as Provisional Members of AIBA;
- (h) suspend National Federations from their memberships of AIBA and, where appropriate, revoke such suspensions;
- (i) regulate relations between AIBA, the Confederations and the National Federations with respect to non-AIBA national and international boxing organizations;
- (j) determine criteria for redistribution of resources to Confederations and for boxing development and projects;
- (k) establish and vary such committees as may be required by this Constitution;
- (l) establish, vary and abolish such other committees as, in the opinion of the Board, may from time to time be, or have been, necessary or desirable for the management and administration of AIBA and the sport of boxing worldwide;
- (m) subject to the approval of the Congress, appoint the members of the Ethics Committee and the Disciplinary Committee;

- (n) save as may otherwise be required by this Constitution or by the Regulations, appoint and dismiss the members of committees established by it;
- (o) prepare the annual budget and the annual accounts of AIBA;
- (p) approve AIBA expenditures which were not foreseen in the annual budget and which exceed the limit of the amounts which may be expended at the discretion of the Secretary General;
- (q) appoint and, where appropriate, dismiss the Auditor;
- (r) appoint the Secretary General following a selection process further described in the Regulations, and, where appropriate, dismiss the Secretary General;
- (s) appoint and, where appropriate, dismiss:
 - (i) the Finance Adviser;
 - (ii) the Legal Counsel;
- (t) determine the location and dates for all AIBA Competitions;
- (u) monitor compliance with the requirements of this Constitution;
- (v) lodge such complaints with the Disciplinary Committee and/or Ethics Committee with respect to alleged breaches of this Constitution or the Regulations by any persons or bodies as the Board may consider necessary or appropriate;
- (w) nominate persons to the Congress who the Board considers are worthy of being awarded Distinguished Service Awards;
- (x) propose amendments to, or the replacement of, this Constitution for the consideration and determination of the Congress;
- (y) decide to hold relationships or collaborate with other sports organizations; and
- (za) do all other acts and things which are either specified in this Constitution and the Regulations, or which do not fall within the competence of another body under this Constitution and the Regulations.

30. TERM OF OFFICE

- 30.1 Subject to articles 33.1 to 33.3, and with the exception of those Directors referred to in article 25.1(b), the term of office of each Director shall:
- (a) commence at the conclusion of the Election Congress Meeting at which he or she is elected; and
 - (b) end at the conclusion of the following Election Congress Meeting.
- 30.2 A Director other than a President shall be limited to a maximum of two consecutive terms of office on the Board.
- 30.3 A President shall be entitled to serve up to two terms of office as President without regard to any term or terms of office he or she may otherwise have served on the Board.
- 30.4 Any term or terms of office previously served by the President or any other Director as a member of the former Executive Committee of AIBA shall be taken into consideration in calculating the maximum number of terms of office which such person may serve on the Board.

31. PRESIDENT

- 31.1 The President has the power and, where so required by this Constitution, the duty to:
- (a) convene meetings of the Board;
 - (b) chair meetings of the Congress and of the Board;
 - (c) deliver reports to the Congress relating to AIBA's activities and affairs;
 - (d) oversee the work of the Secretary General;
 - (e) represent AIBA in its dealings with the Confederations, National Federations, the IOC, national governments, international sports federations and other national and international organizations;
 - (f) otherwise act as AIBA's primary spokesperson; and
 - (g) perform such other duties and tasks as he or she may be entrusted with from time to time by the Board.

31.2 The Board shall allocate a representational allowance to the President for activities undertaken by the President on behalf of AIBA. The amount and terms of payment of such representational allowance shall be determined from time to time by the Board.

32. VICE PRESIDENT

32.1 Following an Election Congress Meeting, the Directors elected at such meeting shall forthwith elect from among their own number the Vice President of AIBA.

32.2 Consistent with this Constitution, the Vice President shall:

- (a) whenever necessary, exercise any of the powers of the President if the President is temporarily unable or unwilling to exercise such power or powers;
- (b) assume, as Interim President, the powers and duties of the President when required to do so in accordance with article 33.1; and
- (c) perform such other task or tasks as he or she may be entrusted with from time to time by the Board.

32.3 The Vice President may be removed from office as Vice President on a motion of no confidence adopted by not less than two thirds of the Directors serving on the Board at the time of the adoption of such motion.

33. VACANT EXECUTIVE POSITIONS

33.1 If the President

- (a) dies whilst in office;
- (b) resigns his or her office as President;
- (c) has been removed from office following a vote of no confidence adopted at a Congress meeting in accordance with article 17.1(d); or
- (d) is otherwise unable or unwilling for a period in excess of three months to exercise his or her powers as President for whatever reason;

then the Vice President shall assume, as Interim President, the office and powers of the President until the following Congress meeting.

33.2 If the Vice President:

- (a) dies whilst in office;
- (b) resigns his or her office as Vice President;
- (c) has been removed from office following a vote of no confidence adopted:
 - (i) at a meeting of the Congress in accordance with article 17.1(d); or
 - (ii) by the Board in accordance with article 32.3; or
- (d) is otherwise unable or unwilling for a period in excess of three months to exercise his or her powers as Vice President for whatever reason;

then the Directors shall forthwith elect from among their own number a replacement Vice President.

33.3 If a Director:

- (a) dies whilst in office;
- (b) resigns whilst in office on the Board;
- (c) has been removed from office following a vote of no confidence adopted at a meeting of the Congress in accordance with article 17.1(d); or
- (d) is otherwise unable or unwilling for a period in excess of three months to perform the duties of his or her office for whatever reason:

then the position of that Director on the Board shall be deemed vacant, and shall remain vacant until the following Congress Meeting.

33.4 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Board shall make such regulations governing when and the manner in which meetings of the Board are to be conducted.

34. AIBA COUNCIL

34.1 The Council consists of five members as follows:

- (a) the President;
- (b) the Vice President; and
- (c) three Directors elected by the Board.

- 34.2 The Council will function in place of the Board for all matters that require a decision to be made between Board meetings. All decisions taken by the Council shall be subject to review at the next meeting of the Board.
- 34.3 Council meetings may be conducted:
- (a) in person; or
 - (b) by means of telecommunications. A telecommunications meeting may be held by telephone or by audio-visual link.
- 34.4 At the discretion of the President, the Council may be invited to reach a decision on any matter by an email vote.
- 34.5 Save as otherwise provided by this Constitution, the Board may make such regulations as it deems necessary or appropriate governing when, where and the manner in which meetings of the Council are to be conducted.

35. SIGNATURE

- 35.1 Save as may otherwise be provided by the Board:
- (a) any document, other than one relating to a financial or proposed financial transaction, may be executed on behalf of AIBA by either the President or the Secretary General; and
 - (b) a document relating to a financial or proposed financial transaction, where the amount or amounts involved exceed any limits fixed by the Board on amounts which may be expended at the discretion of the Secretary General, must be executed on behalf of AIBA by any two of the following:
 - (i) the President;
 - (ii) the Vice President; and
 - (iii) the Secretary General.

36. STANDING COMMITTEES

- 36.1 The following committees shall be standing committees of AIBA:
- (a) the Ethics Committee;
 - (b) the Disciplinary Committee;

- (c) the Athletes' Committee;
 - (d) the Audit Committee.
- 36.2 The Ethics Committee shall consist of three members, each being thoroughly familiar with the ethical principles and values of the Olympic Movement.
- 36.3 The role of the Ethics Committee shall be to:
- (a) assist AIBA in developing and reviewing a framework of ethical principles based on those to be found in the Olympic Charter (“the AIBA Ethical Principles”);
 - (b) to provide advice and other assistance to AIBA’s organs of governance and to AIBA’s committees with a view to ensuring that the AIBA Ethical Principles are applied in practice as intended;
 - (c) investigate any matters which it perceives may infringe the AIBA Ethical Principles — either on its own motion or upon referral by the Board — and issue the necessary decisions as provided for under the Regulations;
 - (d) assist AIBA in identifying and resolving any conflicts of interest within AIBA;
 - (e) perform the tasks required of it by article 26.2; and
 - (f) perform such duties as may be required by articles 27.1 to 27.3.
- 36.4 The Disciplinary Committee shall consist of three members, each being qualified to practice law in his or her country of origin and/or of domicile.
- 36.5 The role of the Disciplinary Committee shall be to:
- (a) adjudicate on complaints made to it of infringements of provisions in this Constitution or in the Regulations; and
 - (b) to impose sanctions on those bodies and persons found by the Disciplinary Committee to have breached such provisions in circumstances where the Committee considers that such sanctions are warranted.
- 36.6 No member of either the Ethics Committee or the Disciplinary Committee may occupy an office in, be employed by or in any other way be affiliated with AIBA or a Confederation, save for his or her membership of the Ethics Committee or the Disciplinary Committee respectively.

- 36.7 No member of either the Ethics Committee or the Disciplinary Committee may be a member of, occupy an office in, be employed by or in any other way be affiliated with a National Federation.
- 36.8 Not less than 20 days prior to the date fixed for the commencement of each Ordinary Congress meeting which is not an Election Congress Meeting, the AIBA Head Office shall forward by post or email to all Eligible National Federations, and publish on the AIBA website, a full list of those persons whom the Board proposes to appoint, following the recruitment and recommendation of these persons by a suitable independent body or bodies of high international standing, to each of:
- (a) the Ethics Committee; and
 - (b) the Disciplinary Committee;
- (subject to each such proposed appointment being ratified by the Congress concerned).
- 36.9 At each Ordinary Congress meeting, the Voting Delegates from the National Federations in attendance at such meeting may vote to:
- (a) approve the appointment of all;
 - (b) approve the appointment of one or more but not all;
 - (c) not approve the appointment of any;
- of the persons who the Board has proposed to appoint to each of the Ethics Committee and the Disciplinary Committee.
- 36.10 In the event that the Voting Delegates from the National Federations in attendance at an Ordinary Congress meeting which is not an Election Congress Meeting vote to approve the appointment of one or more but not all of the persons who the Board had proposed to appoint to either the Ethics Committee or the Disciplinary Committee, then the person or persons whose appointment to such Committee has or have been approved by such Voting Delegates shall forthwith appoint such other person or persons as he, she or they deem appropriately qualified to fill the vacant office or offices on such Committee until the next Ordinary Congress meeting which is not an Election Congress Meeting.
- 36.11 In the event that the Voting Delegates from the National Federations in attendance at an Ordinary Congress meeting which is not an Election Congress Meeting vote not to approve the appointment of any persons who the Board has proposed to appoint to either the Ethics Committee or the Disciplinary Committee, then the Board shall forthwith appoint three other persons following the process outlined in article 36.8 until the next AIBA Congress Meeting or through ratification through the Confederation Congress meetings.

36.12 Subject to article 36.13, 36.14, 36.15 and 36.16, the term of office of each member of the Ethics Committee and of the Disciplinary Committee shall:

- (a) commence immediately upon that member's appointment to such Committee; and
- (b) end upon the next appointment at an Ordinary Congress meeting which is not an Election Congress Meeting.

36.13 No member of the Ethics Committee or of the Disciplinary Committee may serve more than two terms of office on such Committee.

36.14 A member of the Ethics Committee or of the Disciplinary Committee may only be removed as a member of that Committee by a motion of no confidence adopted by the Voting Delegates from the National Federations in attendance at a meeting of the Congress.

36.15 If a member of the Ethics Committee or of the Disciplinary Committee:

- (a) dies whilst in office as a member of such Committee;
- (b) resigns his or her office as a member of such Committee;
- (c) is removed as a member of such Committee in accordance with article 36.14;
or
- (d) is otherwise unwilling or unable for a period in excess of one month to perform the duties of his or her office as a member of such Committee for whatever reason;

then the remaining members of such Committee shall appoint such other person as they deem appropriately qualified to fill the vacant office on such Committee until the next Ordinary Congress meeting which is not an Election Congress Meeting.

36.16 If all of the members of the Ethics Committee or of the Disciplinary Committee, at or about the same time:

- (a) die whilst in office as members of such Committee;
- (b) resign their offices as members of such Committee;
- (c) are removed as members of such Committee in accordance with article 36.14; or
- (d) are otherwise unable or unwilling for a period in excess of one month to perform the duties of their offices as members of such Committee for whatever reason;

then the Board shall appoint such other persons as it may deem appropriately qualified to fill the vacant offices on such Committee until the next Ordinary Congress meeting which is not an Election Congress Meeting.

36.17 The Athletes' Committee shall consist of 10 boxers elected to such Committee by boxers in accordance with regulations which shall be adopted by the Board to regulate such elections and the work of the Committee.

36.18 The role of the Athletes' Committee is to:

- (a) ensure that the views and opinions of boxers are heard and considered within AIBA;
- (b) enable the election from the members of the Committee of a male and a female athlete as members of the Board in accordance with article 25.1(e) and 25.2;
- (c) provide a forum for AIBA to communicate to boxers information regarding AIBA's programs and policies;
- (d) support the appointment of boxers to membership of the IOC's Athletes' Committee; and
- (e) work with and support AIBA's mission to develop and promote the sport of boxing worldwide.

36.19 The Audit Committee shall consist of the following three or more members:

- (a) a member of the Board who, where possible, possesses financial and/or accounting expertise;

(b) the Finance Adviser; and

(c) not less than one other independent member possessing financial and accounting expertise.

36.20 AIBA's Chief Financial Officer or, where from time to time there may not be such an Officer in the employ of AIBA, the AIBA employee primarily responsible for AIBA's financial statements and accounting records, shall be obliged to join all meetings of the Audit Committee unless excused by that Committee from doing so; and shall be entitled to speak but not to vote at such Audit Committee meetings.

36.21 The role of the Audit Committee shall be to:

(a) regularly review the financial statements and accounting records of AIBA prepared by AIBA's employees;

(b) liaise with the Auditor as and when necessary or thought desirable; and

(c) report to the Board at least once every six months on the status of, and matters arising in relation to, AIBA's financial statements and accounting records

36.22 The members of the Audit Committee shall be appointed by the Board as soon as reasonably possible following each Election Congress Meeting and, subject to articles 36.23 and 36.24, shall serve terms of office ending at the conclusion of the following Election Congress Meeting,

36.23 A member of the Audit Committee may only be removed as a member of such Committee by a motion of no confidence adopted by not less than two thirds of the Directors serving on the Board at the time of the adoption of such motion.

36.24 If a member of the Audit Committee:

(a) dies whilst in office as a member of such Committee;

(b) resigns his or her office as a member of such Committee;

(c) is removed as a member of such Committee in accordance with article 36.23;
or

(d) is otherwise unwilling or unable to perform the duties of his or her office as a member of such Committee for whatever reason;

then the Board shall appoint such other person as it deems appropriately qualified to fill the vacant office on such Committee until the next Election Congress Meeting.

37. FINANCE ADVISER AND LEGAL COUNSEL

37.1 The role of the Finance Adviser shall be to:

- (a) provide advice with respect to AIBA's finances and financial affairs to the Congress, the Board and the Council; and
- (b) perform such other related duties and tasks as he or she may be entrusted with from time to time by the Board or by the Council.

37.2 The role of the Legal Counsel shall be to:

- (a) provide constitutional and legal advice to the Congress, the Board and the Council; and
- (b) perform such other related duties and tasks as he or she may be entrusted with from time to time by the Board or by the Council.

37.3 The Finance Adviser and the Legal Counsel, together with the Auditor, shall be entitled to attend and speak at meetings of the Congress and of the Board, but shall not be entitled to vote at such meetings.

38. AIBA HEAD OFFICE

38.1 The administrative work of AIBA shall primarily be conducted at the AIBA Head Office by AIBA's administrative staff under the direction of the Secretary General.

39. SECRETARY GENERAL

39.1 The role of the Secretary General shall be to:

- (a) provide administrative assistance and support to the Congress, to the Board and to the committees of AIBA;
- (b) assist in securing the implementation of decisions taken by the Congress, the Board and the committees of AIBA;

- (c) arrange for the taking and keeping of the minutes of the Congress, the Board and the committees of AIBA;
- (d) manage the AIBA Head Office;
- (e) direct and supervise the work of AIBA's administrative staff;
- (f) direct and supervise the preparation and management of AIBA's accounts, and present a report of such accounts to each meeting of the Congress and of the Board;
- (g) supervise the storage and, where required, the retrieval of AIBA's records and archives; and
- (h) perform such other duties and tasks as he or she may be entrusted with from time to time by the Board.

40. HONORARY POSITIONS AND AWARDS

- 40.1 Upon a motion moved by the Board, the Congress may confer on a person who:
- (a) has rendered outstanding service to AIBA and/or the sport of boxing worldwide; or
 - (b) is otherwise deserving of such recognition;
- an AIBA Distinguished Service Award.

41. FINANCIAL POLICY

- 41.1 AIBA's financial year shall commence on 1 July in each year and end on 30 June in the following year.
- 41.2 The Board shall ensure that proper accounts are kept for AIBA.
- 41.3 The accounts of AIBA shall be kept in accordance with:
- (a) AIBA's budgetary requirements;
 - (b) all applicable financial regulations; and
 - (c) internationally recognised financial and accounting standards.

42. RESOURCES

- 42.1 The financial resources of AIBA arise mainly from:
- (a) revenues generated from the exploitation of any of AIBA's rights (including, but not limited to, its rights to competitions, licences, broadcasting rights and sponsorships);
 - (b) gifts, legacies and donations received;
 - (c) Annual Affiliation Fees paid;
 - (d) all revenues received from the International Olympic Committee;
 - (e) disciplinary fines paid; and
 - (f) revenues derived from the delivery of AIBA certification and other courses.

43. AUDITORS

- 43.1 AIBA accounts shall be audited by an independent and qualified Auditor.
- 43.2 An audit report shall be presented each year to the Board not more than six months after the closing date for the AIBA accounts.
- 43.3 Consolidated and audited bi-yearly AIBA financial statements shall be presented to each Ordinary Congress meeting, together with yearly audit reports issued by the Auditor.

44. REVENUES FROM AIBA COMPETITIONS AND OTHER EVENTS

- 44.1 All rights arising from, or associated with, AIBA Competitions and all other AIBA boxing related programs are owned by AIBA. Such rights shall include, but are not necessarily limited to:
- (a) the right to receive all revenues generated by such AIBA Competitions and AIBA fitness boxing programs;
 - (b) all sponsorship rights;
 - (c) all marketing, merchandising and advertising rights;
 - (d) all promotional rights;
 - (e) all ticketing rights;
 - (f) all hospitality and other concessional rights;

- (g) all broadcasting and visual, audio and data recording rights;
- (h) all other media and social media rights; and
- (i) all other intellectual property rights.

45. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

45.1 AIBA exclusively owns and controls all intellectual property rights (trademark, design, patent or copyright) over:

- (a) its name and logo;
- (b) any other design, symbol, trademark, mascot or emblem relating to AIBA Competitions and AIBA's other activities;
- (c) any cup, trophy, sculpture or other items intended to be used as prizes during AIBA Competitions; and
- (d) any training material or other information about the sport of boxing published by AIBA.

45.2 AIBA may exploit any of the rights referred to in articles 44.1 and 45.1 in any manner which it from time to time considers of benefit to AIBA and/or to the sport of boxing; including, but not limited to:

- (a) the sale, licensing or delegation of all or any part or parts of such right to another party or parties; and
- (b) by joining with another party or parties in forming a corporate entity, a partnership or a joint venture to exploit such right or any part or parts of it.

46. AIBA COMPETITIONS

46.1 The Board may make regulations governing the conduct of international boxing competitions.

46.2 No Director may be a member of any committee established by the Board pursuant to article 29.1(l) where the principal purpose of the Committee is to regulate technical and competition issues associated with boxing; including but not limited to:

- (a) technical or competition rules;
- (b) refereeing and judging;

- (c) coaching; and
- (d) the training or deployment of Competition Officials.

46.3 No Director may be a Competition Official.

47. ETHICS, ANTI-DOPING AND DISCIPLINARY ISSUES

47.1 The Board shall adopt regulations to deal with:

- (a) ethical and disciplinary issues (including issues related to conflicts of interest) arising within AIBA, the Confederations and the National Federations; and
- (b) anti-doping issues.

48. COURT OF ARBITRATION FOR SPORT

48.1 Any dispute arising from the Constitution and the Regulations which cannot be settled amicably, will be submitted exclusively to CAS and resolved definitively in accordance with the Code of Sports Related Arbitration. The Panel will consist of three arbitrators and the proceeding will be in English.

48.2 Any final decision rendered by AIBA may be submitted exclusively to CAS, which will resolve the dispute definitively in accordance with the Code of Sports Related Arbitration. The language of the proceeding shall be English. The time limit to appeal shall be 30 days after the reception of the decision to be appealed.

48.3 CAS shall decide the dispute according to this Constitution and the Regulations, as well as Swiss law.

49. DISSOLUTION

49.1 Any vote to dissolve AIBA shall only be deemed to have been carried at a meeting of the Congress if the voting delegates from not less than three quarters of all National Federations in attendance at the meeting vote in favour of it.

49.2 If AIBA is dissolved, it will go into liquidation in accordance with the provisions of Swiss law. Any surplus of assets after dissolution shall be distributed to another tax-exempt not-for-profit entity with a similar purpose or to the Canton of Vaud.

50. TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

50.1 For the purposes of these transitional provisions in this Constitution:

“AIBA Statutes” means the Statutes of AIBA, last revised in Moscow on November 11, 2018;

“ASOIF” means the Association of Summer Olympic International Federations;

“Athletes’ Commission” means the Athletes’ Commission established in accordance with article 45.1 of the AIBA Statutes;

“Disciplinary Commission” means the Disciplinary Commission established in accordance with articles 47.1 and 47.2 of the AIBA Statutes;

“Ethics Commission” means the Ethics Commission established in accordance with articles 47.1 and 47.2 of the AIBA Statutes;

“Executive Committee” means the Executive Committee of AIBA constituted in accordance with article 34 of the AIBA Statutes;

“GAISF” means the Global Association of International Sports Federations; and “Transitional Committee” means the Committee constituted in accordance with article 50.13 and, if necessary, article 50.14 of the Constitution.

50.2 Subject to the provisions contained in articles 50.3, and save only for articles 32.1, 32.2, 32.3, 33.1, 33.2, 34.1, 34.2, 34.3, 34.4 and 34.5, this Constitution shall enter into force at the conclusion of the Congress meeting during which it is adopted.

50.3 Articles 32.1, 32.2, 32.3, 33.1, 33.2, 34.1, 34.2, 34.3, 34.4 and 34.5 shall enter into force at the conclusion of the first Election Congress Meeting following the adoption of this Constitution.

50.4 The two members of the Executive Committee elected to that Committee in accordance with article 34.1(c) of the AIBA Statutes and holding office as such immediately prior to the adoption of this Constitution shall be deemed for all purposes to be Directors and members of the Board of AIBA under the constitution until the conclusion of the election to elect the members of the Athletes’ Commission conducted in accordance with article 50.20.

50.5 The President of AIBA elected at the Congress meeting during which this Constitution is adopted shall be deemed for all purposes following the adoption of the Constitution to be the President, a Director and a member of the Board of AIBA under the Constitution until the conclusion of the first Election Congress Meeting following the adoption of the Constitution.

50.6 Subject to the requirements of articles 50.4 and 50.5, the members of the Executive Committee holding office as such immediately prior to the adoption of the Constitution shall be deemed for all purposes to be the remaining Directors and members of the Board of AIBA under the Constitution until the conclusion of the first Election Congress Meeting following the adoption of the Constitution.

50.7 If, between the date of adoption of this Constitution and the conclusion of the first Election Congress Meeting following that adoption, the President:

- (a) dies whilst in office;
- (b) resigns his or her office as President;
- (c) is otherwise unable or unwilling to exercise his or her powers as President for whatever reason;

then the remaining members of the Board shall elect one of their number to assume, as Interim President, the office and powers of the President until the first Election Congress Meeting following the adoption of this Constitution.

50.8 On a date following the adoption of this Constitution determined by the Board, the Board shall give written notice to the National Federations notifying them of the convening by the Board of an Extraordinary or Ordinary Congress meeting, as the case may be; with such meeting:

- (a) to commence no later than 11 December 2022; and
- (b) to be deemed and to serve as the first Election Congress Meeting for the purposes of the Constitution.

50.9 For the purposes of article 50.8, the Board shall give all National Federations not less than three months' notice of the convening of the Congress referred to in that article.

50.10 From the day on which the Board gives written notice to the National Federations in accordance with article 50.8 until the conclusion of the Congress meeting referred to in the notice:

- (a) the powers vested in the Board by virtue of articles 16.6 and 29.1(c), (p) and (u), together with the power to monitor compliance with the requirements of this Constitution, shall be vested in the Transitional Committee constituted in accordance with article 50.13 and, if necessary, article 50.14; and
- (b) the powers vested in the Board by article 50.6 shall be suspended; save that:
 - (i) if considered necessary or appropriate by the Transitional Committee, such Committee may convene a meeting or meeting of the Board to exercise any of the powers referred to in article 29.1; and
 - (ii) the President shall retain his or her powers to execute any document on behalf of AIBA and to represent AIBA for legal purposes.

50.11 In the event that:

- (a) the Congress meeting referred to in article 50.8 cannot for any reason be conducted at the place and/or at the time and/or in the manner referred to in the notice advising the National Federations of the convening of such Congress meeting; or
- (b) if the quorum referred to in article 23.1 is not attained at such Congress meeting;

then the Transitional Committee shall convene an Extraordinary Congress meeting within three months at such location, or otherwise in such lawful manner, as the Transitional Committee may determine.

50.12 A further Extraordinary Congress meeting convened in accordance with article 50.11 shall:

- (a) be deemed to have been validly conducted notwithstanding that the quorum referred to in article 23.1 may not have been attained; and
- (b) be deemed and serve as the first Election Congress Meeting for the purposes of this Constitution.

50.13 The Transitional Committee shall consist of seven members appointed as follows:

- (a) one person appointed by the ASOIF;

- (b) one person appointed by the GAISF;
 - (c) one person appointed by each of the AFBC, the AMBC, the ASBC, the EUBC and the OCBC.
- 50.14 In the event that the ASOIF and/or the GAISF fail to appoint a person or persons to become members of the Transitional Committee in accordance with article 50.13(a) and/or (b), then the remaining members of such Committee shall appoint to the Committee a replacement person or persons.
- 50.15 No person may be appointed to the Transitional Committee pursuant to article 50.13 or article 50.14 who:
- (a) is or has been employed by AIBA, a Confederation or a National Federation;
 - (b) holds or has held any active office within AIBA, a Confederation or a National Federation; or
 - (c) is or intends to be a candidate in any election to take place during the first Election Congress Meeting.
- 50.16 The President and the Legal Counsel shall attend and may speak at meetings of the Transitional Committee but may not vote at such meetings.
- 50.17 The members of the Ethics Commission holding office as such immediately prior to the adoption of this Constitution shall be deemed for all purposes to be members of, and to constitute, the Ethics Committee under the Constitution until the conclusion of the first Ordinary Congress meeting following the adoption of the Constitution.
- 50.18 The members of the Disciplinary Commission holding office as such immediately prior to the adoption of this Constitution shall be deemed for all purposes to be members of, and to constitute, the Disciplinary Committee until the conclusion of the first Ordinary Congress meeting following the adoption of the Constitution.
- 50.19 The members of the Athletes' Commission holding office as such immediately prior to the adoption of this Constitution shall be deemed for all purposes to be members of, and to constitute, the Athletes' Committee under the Constitution until an election is conducted to elect members of that Committee.

- 50.20 The election of the members of the Athletes' Committee referred to in article 50.19 shall be conducted:
- (a) consistent with regulations adopted by the Board in accordance with article 36.17; and
 - (b) at a time or times determined by the Board, being a time or times no later than 11 December 2022.
- 50.21 As soon as reasonably possible following the adoption of this Constitution, the Board shall appoint the members of the Audit Committee consistent with the requirements of article 36.19.
- 50.22 The members of the Audit Committee appointed in accordance with article 50.21 shall each serve a term of office ending at the conclusion of the first Election Congress Meeting following the adoption of this Constitution, and shall be eligible for re-appointment to the Audit Committee thereafter.
- 50.23 As soon as reasonably possible following the adoption of this Constitution, the Board shall appoint a Secretary General.
- 50.24 As soon as reasonably possible following the adoption of this Constitution, the Board shall appoint a Finance Adviser.
- 50.25 The Legal Counsel holding office as such immediately prior to the adoption of this Constitution shall be deemed for all purposes to be the Legal Counsel following that adoption.
- 50.26 Each Confederation shall:
- (a) amend its Constitution consistent with this Constitution; and
 - (b) elect its President in accordance with its constitution as so amended by no later than 11 December 2022.
- 50.27 The President of each Confederation elected in accordance with article 50.26(b) shall hold office as President of his or her Confederation pursuant to its constitution immediately following such election; save that he or she shall not be entitled to take his or her place as a Director on the Board in accordance with article 25.1(b) until the conclusion of the first Election Congress Meeting following the adoption of this Constitution or the date on which the Vice President (in the meaning of art. 34.1(a)(ii) of the AIBA Statutes) affiliated to that Confederation ceases to be in office, for any reason, whichever the earlier. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the newly elected President of each Confederation shall attend and may speak at meetings of the Board before being entitled to take his or her place as a Director but may not vote at such meetings.

This Constitution has been adopted on the occasion of the AIBA Virtual Congress Meeting, on 13 December 2020.
